

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

We are committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of our business and in so far as is possible requiring our suppliers hold a similar ethos.

Care in Kent’s guidance on Modern Slavery is to:

- Comply with legislation and regulatory requirements
- Make suppliers and service providers aware that we promote the requirements of the legislation
- Consider modern slavery factors when making procurement decisions
- Develop awareness of modern slavery issues

We will:

- Inform staff of the staff Modern Slavery Act Policy and request they read and understand the new requirements
- Aim to include modern slavery conditions or criteria in specification and tender documents wherever possible
- Encourage suppliers and contractors to take their own action and understand their obligations to the new requirements.
